HADLEY, MA - September 15, 2006 – Inspirit Common is pleased to join the growing list of alternative venues around the world screening this new exciting and thought-provoking feature documentary film about the end of the Mayan Calendar and other “end times” prophecies from across the globe. As part of their Spiritual Cinema program, Inspirit Common is excited to bring this thought-provoking film to the Pioneer Valley.

With the release and success of films such as Apocalypse, and The Fountain, there is an increased interest in the Mayans and their calendar. 2012 The Odyssey helps to deepen knowledge and understanding not only of the Mayan calendar, it's rapidly approaching end date, and other “end of time” prophecies from ancient traditions, but it also offers a powerful message of empowerment, hope and possibility for humankind.

2012 The Odyssey is a powerful and poignant film with a deep spiritual and intellectual message. It offers new insight into the turbulent and transformative nature of the times in which we are living.

Join author Sharron Rose on an adventure into the future. In this feature documentary she travels across the United States speaking to the many experts on this fast approaching prophecy. They help her to reveal the secrets that will unfold before our eyes and shape our future.

Featuring noted experts and best-selling authors Jose Arguelles, Gregg Braden, John Major Jenkins, Rick Levine, Terrance McKenna, Geoff Stray, Moira Timms, Alberto Villoldo, Jay Weidner, the Inka Elders and more, this film shows us that the coming world is ours to reshape and remake in any way that we deem possible.

Sharron Rose also travels to the Georgia Guidestones, Washington D.C., the Denver Airport and many other places to discover that there are numerous groups and secret societies who understand that this present age is ending and a new world is now just beginning.

Discover the secrets of the Mayans, the Incans, the Alchemists, the Christians, the Masons and others of our ancient ancestors concerning the end of time and the promise of our destiny as human beings.
