HADLEY, MA - November 1, 2006 – Emily and Bucky Sparkle, the owners of Inspirit Common on Route 9 in Hadley, MA are excited to announce the honorable Younge Khachab Rinpoche will be presenting a rare Dzogchen treatise on the relationship of Emptiness and Awareness, November 10 – 12, 2006 at Inspirit Common on Route 9 in Hadley, MA.

This will be a wonderful weekend of Dharma teachings with one of the most eminent and knowledgeable Tibetan Lamas teaching in the United States and will be translated by renowned Emory University Professor, John Dunne PhD.

Younge Khachab Rinpoche is the Younge (Yonge) family lineage holder, a treasure-revealer and a true nonsectarian scholar and Dzogchen yogi. He is the 7th recorded incarnation of the Khachab Rinpoche Tulku who was known for his accomplishment of Yamantaka and his healing siddhis. Rinpoche makes his home in the United States, and he is one of the most qualified lineage masters alive, holding both the titles of Geshe and Khenpo. He is known for his accessibility, youthful humor and brilliant discourses.

These are the teachings of the Eighth century Indian adept known as the “Sage of Kashmir,” who also traveled and lived in China, Oddiyana and Tibet. Vimalamitra united the two aspects of the Ancient School Lineage of Tibet - and concealed them to be revealed as the Vima Nyingtig, the Secret Heart Essence of Vimalamitra.
